How the company communicates

Below, Jim Kelly meets with several employees at a C.A.L.M. meeting. Before the meeting started, Bonny Heinz explained that C.A.L.M. meetings help management find new ideas as well as receive comments and suggestions.

Below, Superintendent Tom Wilson talks with Mike Lewis and John Jeffries. "These two guys will communicate," Tom says. "They'll let you know what's going on."

The Mailroom staff handles about 3,500 pieces of interoffice mail each day. In addition, about 3,700 pieces of mail go out of the plant each day through the United States Postal Service and 2,000 come in. At right, Mark Swafford (foreground) and Rick Ogle sort intermail.

"Often, the best ideas come from the people who are working with the problems on a daily basis."

THE UNIFORMED SERVICES EMPLOYMENT AND REEMPLOYMENT RIGHTS ACT
TENNESSEE RIGHT TO WORK LAW
Tennessee Code Annotated §50-1-201 et seq. states that it is unlawful for any employer or organization of any kind:
1. To deny or attempt to deny employment to any person by reason of the person's membership in, affiliation with, resignation from or refusal to join or affiliate with any labor union or employee organization of any kind.
2. To enter into any contract, combination or agreement, written or oral, providing for exclusion from employment of any person because of membership in, affiliation with, resignation from or refusal to join or affiliate with any labor union or employee organization of any kind.
3. To exclude from employment on person by reason of the person's payment of or failure to pay dues, fees, assessments or other charges to any labor union or employee organization of any kind.
4. Operating in this state to execute an agreement with a union or employee organization of any kind that includes a maintenance of membership clause prohibiting employees for withdrawing from a labor union or employee organization prior to the agreement's expiration. This section shall not apply to a city, town, municipality or county including a county having a metropolitan form of government.
An employer or organization of any kind violating any of the provisions of this part commits a Class A misdemeanor.
